

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRPERSON
OF THE
MANITOBA LABOUR BOARD

I am pleased to submit the 2015/16 Annual Report outlining the activities of the Manitoba Labour Board for the period April 1, 2015 to March 31, 2016.

During this reporting period, the Manitoba Labour Board successfully fulfilled its mandate and met its objectives. The Board continued to develop and implement initiatives designed to modernize Board practice and procedures. As a result of these initiatives, the Board has enhanced its capacity to provide efficient and expeditious resolution of disputes, made it easier for the public to access the Board's services, and reduced controllable expenditures.

A centerpiece of the Board's recent initiatives is a commitment to expand the use of mediation and case management to assist parties to narrow or resolve issues without the necessity of formal hearings. In April of 2015, the Board's Labour Board Officers received extensive skills-based mediation training to build upon their considerable mediation experience. The result of these efforts has been a significant increase in the number of cases that the Board helps parties to resolve without a hearing. Pre-hearing case management conferences have also been implemented to streamline hearings that do occur and to more effectively schedule cases. The Board also created a plain language guide to assist parties, particularly those who are self-represented, in preparing for Board hearings.

During this reporting period the Board also developed and implemented a new electronic communications strategy. The initiative was led by the Board's Executive Director, Mr. Dale Paterson, working with the Board's electronic communications team. In consultation with the labour relations community, the team researched, developed, and implemented a comprehensive approach to electronic communications. In early November of 2015, a pilot project commenced involving a number of local law firms and legal departments. Following an assessment of the pilot project, the Board's new electronic communication strategy was implemented in January of 2016. I am pleased to report that this initiative has been very successful and enthusiastically received by those individuals who communicate with the Board and, further, has resulted in significant expenditure reductions. I am very grateful to Mr. Paterson, our electronic communications team, and the organizations who participated in the Pilot Project for their efforts.

Extensive changes to the Manitoba Labour Board Rules of Procedure, developed in the previous reporting period, came into force on May 1, 2015. These changes, which were discussed at a well-attended public meeting, modernized the Board's procedures and have proven effective in improving upon the timeliness of Board hearings and decisions.

The Board also held its bi-annual Seminar in May of 2015. The Seminar provided Board Members and senior staff with the opportunity to review a broad range of topics including changes to Board practices and recent Board and Court decisions.

I would like to express my gratitude to the Vice-Chairpersons, Members and staff for their service. I am very grateful for their continuing guidance and expertise, and their dedication to the Board and its activities.

MESSAGE DU PRÉSIDENT
DE LA
COMMISSION DU TRAVAIL DU MANITOBA

J'ai le plaisir de remettre le rapport annuel 2015-2016 faisant état des activités de la Commission du travail du Manitoba du 1^{er} avril 2015 au 31 mars 2016.

Au cours de cette période de déclaration, la Commission a respecté son mandat et a rempli ses objectifs. La Commission a continué d'élaborer et de mettre en œuvre des initiatives conçues pour moderniser ses pratiques et ses procédures. À la suite de ces initiatives, la Commission a amélioré sa capacité à régler des différends de manière efficace et rapide, a permis au public d'avoir un accès plus facile à ses services, et a réduit les dépenses facultatives.

Un élément central des récentes initiatives de la Commission est son engagement à étendre l'utilisation de la médiation et de la gestion des cas pour aider les parties à cerner ou à résoudre les différends sans nécessairement passer par des audiences officielles. En avril 2015, les agents de la Commission du travail ont reçu une formation approfondie sur la médiation fondée sur les compétences pour consolider leur considérable expérience de médiation. Le résultat de ces efforts a été une forte hausse du nombre de cas que la Commission a aidé à résoudre sans audience entre les parties. On a aussi mis en place des conférences de gestion de cas avant l'audience afin de simplifier les audiences qui ont lieu et de planifier plus efficacement les cas. La Commission a aussi élaboré un guide en langage simple pour aider les parties, en particulier les personnes qui se représentent elles-mêmes, à se préparer aux audiences.

Au cours de cette période de déclaration, la Commission a aussi créé et mis en œuvre une stratégie de communication électronique. Cette initiative a été menée par le directeur général de la Commission, M. Dale Paterson, de concert avec l'équipe des communications électroniques de la Commission. En collaboration avec la communauté des relations du travail, l'équipe a fait des recherches, a créé et a mis en place une approche globale des communications électroniques. Au début de novembre 2015, un projet pilote a été lancé avec la participation d'un certain nombre de sections du contentieux et de cabinets d'avocats locaux. Après avoir évalué le projet pilote, la nouvelle stratégie de communications électroniques de la Commission a été mise en œuvre en janvier 2016. J'ai le plaisir d'indiquer que cette initiative a été très réussie et a été très bien accueillie par les personnes qui communiquent avec la Commission et, de plus, elle a entraîné de fortes réductions des dépenses. Je suis très reconnaissant à M. Paterson, à notre équipe de communications électroniques et aux organismes qui ont participé au projet pilote pour leurs efforts.

Des changements profonds au Règlement sur les règles de procédure de la Commission du travail, élaborés au cours de la dernière période de déclaration, sont entrés en vigueur le 1^{er} mai 2015. Ces changements, qui ont été discutés lors d'une réunion publique où la participation a été très élevée, ont modernisé les procédures de la Commission et ont prouvé leur efficacité en améliorant la rapidité de la tenue des audiences et du processus de décision de la Commission.

La Commission a aussi tenu son séminaire semestriel en mai 2015. Ce séminaire a donné aux membres du conseil d'administration et aux cadres dirigeants l'occasion de revoir un large éventail de sujets, y compris des changements aux pratiques de la Commission et des décisions récentes des tribunaux et de la Commission.

Je tiens à remercier de leurs services les vice-présidents, les membres et le personnel. Je leur suis très reconnaissant de leur expertise et de leurs conseils ainsi que de leur dévouement envers la Commission et ses activités.

The Manitoba Labour Board

INTRODUCTION

Report Structure

The Manitoba Labour Board (the Board) annual report is prepared pursuant to subsection 138(14) of The Labour Relations Act.

"The report shall contain an account of the activities and operations of the board, the full text or summary of significant board and judicial decisions related to the board's responsibilities under this and any other Act of the Legislature, and the full text of any guidelines or practice notes which the board issued during the fiscal year."

Vision and Mission

To further harmonious relations between employers and employees by encouraging the practice and procedure of collective bargaining between employers and unions
as the freely designated representatives of employees.

Objectives

- to discharge its statutory responsibilities in an impartial, efficient, knowledgeable, timely, respectful and consistent manner;
- to encourage and facilitate the settlement of disputes through appropriate alternative dispute resolution mechanisms where possible while providing adjudication where necessary;
- to foster understanding of the rights, responsibilities and procedures set forth in the legislation under which it has responsibilities;
- to maintain current and effective rules, practices and procedures which are clear, accessible, fair and impartial; and
- to support constructive and harmonious labour relations between employers, employees and unions.

Role

The Board is an independent and autonomous specialist tribunal responsible for the fair and efficient administration and adjudication of responsibilities assigned to it under The Labour Relations Act and any other Act of the Consolidated Statutes of Manitoba.

The majority of the applications are filed under The Labour Relations Act (L10) and The Employment Standards Code (E110). The Board is also responsible for the administration and/or adjudication of matters arising under certain sections of the following Acts:

The Apprenticeship and Certification Act (A110)
The Construction Industry Wages Act (C190)
The Elections Act (E30)
The Essential Services Act (Government and Child and Family Services) (E145)
The Essential Services Act (Health Care) (E146)
The Pay Equity Act (P13)
The Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblower Protection) Act (P217)
The Public Schools Act (P250)
The Remembrance Day Act (R80)
The Victims' Bill of Rights (V55)
The Worker Recruitment and Protection Act (W197)
The Workplace Safety and Health Act (W210)

The Labour Relations Act

The Board receives and processes applications regarding union certification, decertification, amended certificates, alleged unfair labour practices, expedited arbitration, first contracts, board rulings, duty of fair representation, successor rights, religious objectors and other applications pursuant to the Act.

The Employment Standards Code

The Board hears complaints referred to it by the Employment Standards Division regarding wages, statutory holiday pay, vacation pay and wages in lieu of notice, including provisions pursuant to The Construction Industry Wages Act and The Remembrance Day Act. Until the April 30, 2007 amendment to the Code, the Board also handled hours of work exemption requests and applications for exemption from the weekly day of rest.

The Apprenticeship and Certification Act

The person named in a compliance order or required to pay an administrative penalty may appeal the matter to the Board within 14 days after receiving a notice under subsection 36(6) or 37(5) of the Act.

The Elections Act

A candidate, election officer, enumerator or an election volunteer for a candidate or a registered political party may file an application relating to requests for leave from employment under section 24.2 of the Act. An employer may apply to the chairperson of the Board to request an exemption from the requirement to grant a leave under section 24.2 of the Act, if the leave would be detrimental to the employer's operations.

The Essential Services Act

The Board receives and processes applications from unions for a variation of the number of employees who must work during a work stoppage in order to maintain essential services.

The Pay Equity Act

If parties fail to reach an agreement on an issue of pay equity, within the time frames stipulated in the Act, any party may refer the matter to the Board for adjudication.

The Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblower Protection) Act

Pursuant to section 28 of the Act, an employee or former employee who alleges that a reprisal has been taken against them may file a written complaint with the Board. If the Board determines that a reprisal has been taken against the complainant contrary to section 27, the Board may order one or more of the following measures to be taken:

- (a) permit the complainant to return to his or her duties;
- (b) reinstate the complainant or pay damages to the complainant, if the board considers that the trust relationship between the parties cannot be restored;
- (c) pay compensation to the complainant in an amount not greater than the remuneration that the board considers would, but for the reprisal, have been paid to the complainant;
- (d) pay an amount to the complainant equal to any expenses and any other financial losses that the complainant has incurred as a direct result of the reprisal;
- (e) cease an activity that constitutes the reprisal;
- (f) rectify a situation resulting from the reprisal;
- (g) do or refrain from doing anything in order to remedy any consequence of the reprisal.

The Public Schools Act

Certain provisions of The Labour Relations Act apply to teachers, principals, bargaining agents for units of teachers and school boards.

The Victims' Bill of Rights

Victims of crime may file applications with the Board relating to requests for time off work, without pay, to attend the trial of the person accused of committing the offence, for the purpose of testifying, presenting a victim impact statement or observing any sentencing of the accused person.

The Worker Recruitment and Protection Act

The director of the Employment Standards Division is empowered, on behalf of a foreign worker, a child performer or family member on behalf of a child performer, to issue orders to recover the amount of any prohibited recruitment fees or costs charged, directly or indirectly, by the employer or a person engaged in recruitment of the foreign worker or child performer and can also, by order, recover from an employer any reduction in wages or recover any reduction/elimination of a benefit or other term or condition of employment where the reduction is made to cover the costs of recruitment, all of which is contrary to sections 15, 16 and 17 of the Act. The Board's jurisdiction is triggered when a person affected by a director's order wishes to appeal an order of the director under any of these provisions. The Board hears the appeals pursuant to the provisions of The Employment Standards Code.

The Workplace Safety and Health Act

Any person directly affected by an order or decision of a safety and health officer may appeal the order or decision to the director of Workplace Safety & Health. The director may decide the matter or refer the matter to the Board for determination. Any person affected by an order or decision of the director of Workplace Safety & Health may also appeal to the Board to have the order or decision set aside or varied.

OPERATIONAL OVERVIEW

Adjudication

During 2015/16, the Board was comprised of a full-time chairperson, one half-time vice-chairperson, six part-time vice-chairpersons and 30 board members with an equal number of employer and employee representatives. The chairperson is the presiding officer of the Board pursuant to the provisions of The Labour Relations Act. Part-time vice-chairpersons and board members are appointed by Order in Council and are paid in accordance with the number of meetings and hearings held throughout the year. The Board does not retain legal counsel on staff; legal services are provided through Civil Legal Services of Manitoba Justice.

Investigative and Mediation Services

Investigative and mediation services is comprised of the registrar, four labour relations officers, one board officer and one board clerk. The registrar, who reports to the executive director who in turn reports to the chairperson, is the official responsible for the supervision of the day-to-day investigative and mediation activities of the Board. The primary responsibility of the registrar is the development and execution of the administrative workload as it relates to the various acts under which the Board derives its adjudicative powers. The executive director and the registrar, in conjunction with the chairperson and board members, are involved in the establishment of Board practice and policy. The registrar, together with the board officers, communicates with all parties and with the public regarding Board policies, procedures and jurisprudence.

Reporting to the registrar are four “labour relations” board officers who are responsible for dealing with various cases and conducting investigations pertaining to the applications filed with the Board, under the varying statutes. They can be appointed to act as Board representatives in an endeavour to effect settlement between parties, reducing the need for costly hearings. The board officers act as returning officers in Board conducted representation votes, attend hearings and assist the registrar in the processing of various applications. They also play a conciliatory role when assisting parties in concluding a first or subsequent collective agreement and they act as mediators during the dispute resolution process. Also reporting to the registrar is a board officer, primarily responsible for processing all referrals from the director of the Employment Standards Division and who is involved in mediation efforts in an attempt to resolve the issues. The board clerk is primarily responsible for the processing of expedited arbitration referrals, and maintaining the Board’s library of collective agreements and union constitution and by-laws files. Both the board officer and board clerk also attend Board hearings.

Administrative Services

The staff of the administrative services and the staff of investigative and mediation services work closely to ensure the expeditious processing of applications. Administrative services is comprised of the administrative officer and five administrative support staff. Reporting to the executive director, the administrative officer is responsible for the day-to-day administrative support of the Board, fiscal control and accountability of operational expenditures and the development and monitoring of office systems and procedures to ensure departmental and government policies are implemented.

Reporting to the administrative officer are four administrative secretaries responsible for the processing of documentation. Also reporting to the administrative officer is the information clerk who is responsible for the case management system and files and responds to information requests from legal counsel, educators and the labour community for name searches, collective agreements and certificates.

Research Services

Reporting to the executive director, the researcher is responsible for providing reports, statistical data, and jurisprudence from other provincial jurisdictions and undertaking other research projects as required by the Board. The researcher summarizes and indexes Written Reasons for Decision and Substantive Orders issued by the Board and compiles the Index of Written Reasons for Decision.

PERFORMANCE REPORTING

Summary of Performance

The Manitoba Labour Board adjudicated disputes referred to it under various provincial statutes and its decisions established policy, procedures and precedent and provided for a sounder, more harmonious labour relations environment. The Board conducted formal hearings; however, a significant portion of the Board's workload was administrative in nature. When possible, the Board encouraged the settlement of disputes in an informal manner by appointing a board representative to mediate outstanding issues and complaints. During the 2015/16 fiscal year, issues before the Board were resolved or narrowed in 75 percent of cases where a representative was formally appointed or assisted the parties informally through the dispute mediation process. This represents an increase of 31.5% from the previous fiscal year. In addition, the Board monitored its internal processes to improve efficiencies and expedite processing of applications or referrals.

The number of applications filed with the Manitoba Labour Board during the past 5 years (for the period April 1 to March 31) is indicated in the chart below.

Manitoba Labour Board
Number of Applications Filed

*Types of Applications
LRA	Labour Relations Act
ESC	Employment Standards Code
WS&H	Workplace Safety and Health Act

Case No. 6/15/LRA

May 20, 2015

APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATION - Managerial Exclusions - Union filed application for certification for bargaining unit of all employees employed as Emergency Medical Services Superintendents (EMS Superintendents) - Employer submitted persons in proposed bargaining unit were not "employees" under the Act as they performed management functions primarily and were employed in confidential capacity in matters relating to labour relations - Board determined EMS Superintendents performed duties consistent with front-line supervisors and did not perform management duties primarily - Evidence indicated that EMS Superintendents had access to applications for employment and supporting documentation; personnel files; and, information shared during EMS Leadership meetings and labour-management meetings but evidence fell well short of satisfying Board that EMS Superintendents acted in confidential capacity in matters relating to labour relations - Employer did not discharge onus, on balance of probabilities, to prove that EMS Superintendents perform management functions primarily within definition of "employee" in the Act - Application granted - Substantive Order.

APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATION - Managerial Exclusions - Union filed application for certification for bargaining unit of all employees employed as Emergency Medical Services Superintendents (EMS Superintendents) - Employer submitted persons in proposed bargaining unit were not "employees" under the Act as they performed management functions primarily and were employed in confidential capacity in matters relating to labour relations - On question of whether it would be unfair to a person, Employer, or Union to include the persons in bargaining unit because of those reasons, Board noted that even if it had determined that EMS Superintendents performed management duties primarily or acted in a confidential capacity in matters relating to labour relations, it was not satisfied including them in bargaining unit that included only themselves would result in unfairness - Board has consistently shown willingness to include persons with supervisory authority in bargaining units that do not include persons whom they supervise where no unfairness would result - Application granted - Substantive Order.

Case No. 57/15/LRA

June 1, 2015

PETITION OF OBJECTION - BARGAINING RIGHTS - Termination - Employee, who was a foreman covered by collective agreement, filed Application, including petition signed by majority of affected employees, seeking termination of bargaining rights - Bargaining Agent opposed Application and requested it be dismissed without a vote - Board satisfied petition filed in support of Application represented voluntary wishes of its signatories and met tests and principles outlined in Board's seminal decision of Integrated Messaging Inc., particularly in respect of circumstances surrounding preparation, circulation, and custody of petition and manner in which signatures were obtained and witnessed - Board also satisfied that signing of petition by Employee and others who, at all material times, were employees covered by collective agreement did not taint petition nor affected its validity nor did their signing of petition improperly influenced or affected signing of petition by other employees - Employee established prima facie case under section 50(2) of The Labour Relations Act - Representation Vote previously conducted to be counted to determine issue - Interim Substantive Order.

July 24, 2015

DUTY OF FAIR REPRESENTATION - Prima facie - Undue delay - Employee did not dispute Union provided him with representation throughout time at issue, nor that he was advised of his right to grieve and provided with opportunity to do so - Application spoke primarily to merits of disciplinary action and penalties, which are not focus of section 20 determination - Board found Union representative attended disciplinary meetings with Employer, Union accepted and processed Employee's grievances once it received authorization from him, and Union Screening Committee reviewed matter and determined grievances would not be filed for arbitration, in part relying on legal opinion that grievances would unlikely be successful - Employee failed to establish that Application was filed in timely manner and had Application been filed in timely fashion, it did not establish violation of section 20(a) or (b) of The Labour Relations Act - Application dismissed - Substantive Order.

July 21, 2105

DUTY OF FAIR REPRESENTATION - Board satisfied Employee unduly delayed in filing Application which was filed more than six months after date he agreed to settlement of termination grievance - Employee stated he believed his Application was timely and that he had been unaware he could file claim with Board until being advised by Human Rights Commission - Board determined Employee had not provided acceptable explanation for delay - Pursuant to subsection 30(2) of The Labour Relations Act, Board determined Application dismissed - Substantive Order.

Case No. 60/15/LRA

August 28, 2015

DUTY OF FAIR REPRESENTATION - Settlement of Grievance - Employee advised Union that he would be willing to settle all of his outstanding grievances - On basis of those instructions, Union negotiated Memorandum of Settlement with Employer – Employee later refused to accept settlement – He asserted Union should have renegotiated settlement agreement when he asked it to do so - He submitted failure to do so constituted bad faith contrary to section 20 of The Labour Relations Act – Board held Employee failed to establish prima facie breach of section 20 - Settlement of grievance was based upon express instructions provided by Employee and reasonableness of settlement was buttressed by opinion from Union's legal counsel - Failure of Union to secure, or attempt to secure, more favourable terms of settlement when requested to do so by Employee, did not, in circumstances of present case, establish breach of section 20 of the Act – Application dismissed – Substantive Order.

Case No. 1/15/LRA

September 15, 2015

REVIEW - REMEDY - Union filed Application seeking Review and Reconsideration in respect of Board Order in which Board determined Union acted in arbitrary manner within meaning of clause 20(b) of The Labour Relations Act and that it was to forward grievance to Employer – Union insisted that, even if it was arbitrary in its process, there was no merit to grievance, and requirement that it retain counsel to represent interests of Employees and interests of Union would place counsel in conflict vis-a-vis legal profession's Code of Professional Conduct - Only way remedy would not place counsel in conflict was if grievance had merit - In light of potential conflict of interest, Board amended remedy to state Union was to retain lawyer experienced in labour relations in Manitoba to review merits of Employees' complaint(s) and if opinion concluded that grievance had reasonable prospect of success, Union was obliged to engage, at its cost, lawyer to represent interests of Employees and Union during grievance and arbitration process and was to file grievance(s) with Employer - Substantive Order.

Case No. 176/14/LRA

September 21, 2015

DUTY OF FAIR REPRESENTATION - Employee filed application Seeking Remedy for Alleged Unfair Labour Practice contrary to Section 20 of The Labour Relations Act asserting Union breached its duty by failing to make appropriate inquiries and then advise her of her rights and limitations to buy back her pension from time of her termination until commencement of her regular payments under grievance settlement – Board satisfied that lawyer for Union advised Employee’s lawyer that Union agreed to all proposed conditions of settlement except on pension buyback issue it could not accept condition related to obligation that may or may not be owed by third party – Board determined Employee achieved, with input and advice from her lawyer, reasonable settlement and “buyer’s remorse” ex post facto cannot be foundation for Section 20 complaint - Board also noted Application, when filed, was primarily based on unreasonable delay in Employee receiving settlement payments, and “buy back” issue was first raised when Employee filed “amending” material five months after terms of settlement had been concluded, with finality – Application dismissed - Substantive Order.

Case No. 59/15/LRA

December 23, 2015

DUTY OF FAIR REPRESENTATION - Arbitrary Conduct - Bad Faith - Employee filed Application seeking remedy for alleged unfair labour practice contrary to section 20 of The Labour Relations Act submitting Union’s decisions relating to his grievance were based upon incomplete facts as a result of a perfunctory investigation, and complained that the legal opinion was based on incorrect or incomplete facts because he was denied any meaningful involvement in process – Board determined Union acted in arbitrary manner and in bad faith contrary to subsection 20(b) of the Act - During Grievance Committee meeting, Applicant was treated in dismissive, indifferent, summary, non-caring and perfunctory manner - National Representative failed to respond to Applicant’s questions, indicated result of matter prior to meeting concluding and prior to Grievance Committee’s deliberation, and failed to consider Applicant’s submissions and perspectives which amounted to arbitrary conduct - Moreover, hostility and/or ill-will exhibited by National Representative during Grievance Committee meeting constituted bad faith - Applicant raised issues with respect to certain factual determinations in the legal opinion which were serious and significant enough to require Union defer making any decision with respect to grievance until those facts could be reviewed by lawyer who prepared legal opinion - Failure to do so was failure to direct one’s mind to merits of matter or to inquire into or to act on available evidence which amounted to arbitrary conduct prohibited by section 20 of the Act – Application granted – Substantive Order.

Case No. 248/15/LRA

January 7, 2016

UNFAIR LABOUR PRACTICE - Internal Union Affairs - As a result of Applicant’s termination of employment for possession of marijuana, Union suspended his union membership in accordance with Union’s bylaws - Applicant filed Application seeking remedy for alleged unfair labour practice claiming that Union violated subsections 19(c) and (d) of The Labour Relations Act when it unfairly suspended his membership by refusing to dispatch him from Hiring Hall – Board determined Application did not contain factual assertions which, if proven, would establish that Union had applied any membership rule in discriminatory manner or that Union sought, through prohibited means, to compel or induce him to refrain from being member or officer of Union or to deprive him of his rights under the Act - Essence of Applicant’s position was that he denied that Union had drug and alcohol policy and he disagreed with Union’s decision to suspend his membership by refusing to dispatch him from the Hiring Hall pending satisfactory clearance certificate – That disagreement did not constitute violation of section 19 of the Act – Not role of Board to sit as general court of appeal from union decisions regarding their members – Application dismissed – Substantive Order.

Case No. 145/15/ESC

November 3, 2015

NOTICE - Resignation - Employer appealed Order to pay Employee four weeks' wages in lieu of notice submitting it did not terminate Employee's employment but rather Employee resigned at disciplinary meeting – Board determined that while Employee did turn in her keys to Employer's establishment, that action was at request of Employer; no evidence Employee voluntarily removed any of her personal belongings, other than her coat and purse, from her office; and, Employee immediately characterized situation to others as termination rather than resignation - Employee may have misunderstood Employer's intent at meeting, but Employer at no time attempted to correct her understanding of situation - Board not satisfied Employer established Employee resigned – Appeal dismissed – Substantive Order.

Case No. 107/15/WSH

November 20, 2015

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE - Right to Appeal - Employee filed an Appeal respecting Right to Refuse Report in which Workplace Safety and Health Officer concluded the work in question was safe to perform and worker was not entitled to refuse the work – In her appeal, Employee sought remedy of policy change for her co-workers - Board determined Employee was on inactive status on unpaid leave of absence and would remain so until date of her resignation - Her active employment had effectively concluded - Subsection 39(1) of Workplace Safety and Health Act provided that person “directly affected by an order or decision of the director under section 37 may appeal it to the Board” - Employee who had no current involvement with worksite in question was not “directly affected” within meaning of subsection 39(1) of the Act - Board concluded issuing ruling on Appeal was not necessary to advance or protect health and safety of other workers because if similar situations arose those cases would to be addressed on their own facts - Board satisfied that Release signed by Employee was valid, binding and enforceable and ousted jurisdiction of Board to consider merits of Appeal - Based upon provisions of valid, binding and enforceable Settlement Agreement matter was moot and there was no longer live controversy to be resolved – Appeal dismissed – Substantive Order.

Krueger Enterprises Ltd. - and - Director, Workplace Safety & Health

Case No. 133/15/WSH

November 20, 2015

APPEAL - Exemption from Regulation Re Guardrail Systems - Employer filed appeal respecting Stop Work Order and Improvement Order issued as result of employees on roof not wearing safety harnesses as required by sections 14.3 and 14.6 of the Workplace Safety and Health Regulation - Manitoba Shingling Contractors Association (MSCA) obtained exemption from certain sections of Regulation with respect to roof inspections and emergency repairs lasting no longer than 20 minutes - Board determined, pursuant to authority granted by section 21 of the Workplace Safety and Health Act, Director issued exemption order to MSCA for period of three years - As a result, members of MSCA were exempted from sections 14.3 and 14.6 of the Regulation when performing “roof inspections and emergency repairs” - Workers on roof without harnesses were engaged in “roof inspection”, a task that required less than five minutes to perform and work was done during period exemption order was in effect – Board determined workers were performing work contemplated by valid exemption granted by Director and Stop Work Order and Improvement Order should not have been imposed – Orders set aside – Substantive Order.

Sunrise Poultry Processors Ltd. carrying on business as Dunn-Rite Food Products - and - Director, Workplace Safety & Health

Case No. 130/15/WSH

February 10, 2016

ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY - TIMELINESS - By subsection 53.1(7) of The Workplace Safety and Health Act, person required to pay administrative penalty may appeal matter by sending Board notice of appeal within 14 days after being served with notice - Board determined Appellant did not file appeal in accordance with time limit simply by mailing its appeal on 14th day – For appeal to be timely, Board had to receive appeal in its offices on or before the 14th day - Appeal not received at Board's office until 17 days after being served Notice - Time limit in subsection 53.1(7) mandatory and failure to follow this provision goes to jurisdiction of Board to entertain any appeal – Appeal dismissed – Substantive Order.

ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY - PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE - Service - Parties disagree on date Notice of Administrative Penalty served - Notice mailed to Appellant's Winnipeg office attention to company president whose office was located in British Columbia did not change fact that Notice was served on June 15, 2015 rather than June 17th when company official redirected Notice to president – Also, confirmation of service indicating that mail signed for by individual who was not employee of Appellant did not persuade Board that Appellant was not served with Notice on June 15, 2015 – Substantive Order.

SUMMARIES OF SIGNIFICANT COURT DECISIONS

During the fiscal year, no court decisions were issued related to labour board cases. Three matters were discontinued by the applicants.

1. One of the 38 cases filed was an Amended Certificate/Board Ruling (AC/BR), but for statistical purposes has been reported as an Amended Certificate. Three of the granted cases were also filed as AC/BR, but have been reported as Amended Certificates.
2. When an Application for Certification is filed with the Board, changes in conditions of employment cannot be made without the Board's consent until the Application is disposed of.
3. Within the first 90 days following certification of a union as a bargaining agent, strikes and lockouts are prohibited, and changes in conditions of employment cannot be made without the consent of the bargaining agent. Applications under this section are for an extension of this period of up to 90 days.
4. Extension of Time Limit for expedited decisions. As of October 28, 2015, extension requests were submitted as a letter to the expedited arbitration file rather than a separate application.
5. See Table 3 for a breakdown of statistics relating to applications for referral for expedited arbitration.
